What Others Need To Know or Do To Support Me

- Provide some background information on where/who the training is for, before I arrive, so I can best meet the needs of the group
- I will always have things organized, even if it may not seem that way. Just give me a deadline of when things are needed and then don't worry
- Traveling can be hard, so it is important for me to try and stick to a workout routine and healthy eating. Accommodations that offer that would be great!
- Make sure I have accurate location addresses and contact numbers of those coordinating the event in case there are any problems
- Sometimes I may seem preoccupied, but know that I am listening and will respond. Don't take it personally

What Is Important To Me As A Trainer

- To provide a practical, useful learning experience for people
- To have an open environment where we can all learn from each other
- To have things organized before people arrive, but am flexible if things need to change
- To help people enhance their skills and knowledge to better support people with disabilities.
- To be relaxed, easygoing and lighthearted
- To have fun while working hard
