Our Purpose

To review and recommend submitted or commissioned material that hones planning, teaching, and training concepts designed to increase the positive control people have in their lives

To assure that those materials maintain the values of The Learning Community for Person Centered Practice

How do we do it?

Recruit materials workgroups to develop, review and revise curriculum – Materials should be complete, clear in purpose and developed in a reasonable time frame

Materials are reviewed and approved by the Steering Committee and submitted to the Executive Director

Executive Director review the materials with board and makes final approval

Approved materials will be posted in the appropriate location on TLCPCP website

TLCPCP copyrighted materials may only be used for training or other public purposes by credentialed practitioners and/or with proper attribution.
